I am a patron of the area and do not feel safe on Kaumualii Street and I have a baby and can not park near the curb because I am intimidated and also that they have also been blocking the sidewalks and partially on the street so you have to walk on the street with the stroller. It's also a driving hazard when there's objects in the road and people. Especially with the recent road rage incident I feel very unsafe and unsure of they are carrying weapons since it sees there's illegal activity going on there. It's very dangerous even in daylight and I don't feel safe there with my child without my husband present.
